

Description

INFINITY INSURANCE COMPANY is currently seeking a SPECIAL INVESTIGATOR for the Los Angeles, CA area.

Investigators are responsible for prompt and objective investigation and/or claims handling on referred claims which are thought to be of suspicious in nature. They will support claim operations by handling assigned claims, and keeping management apprised of findings as well as make recommendations and/or decisions on disposition of claims.

We offer an excellent benefits package and a company vehicle. EOE. No phone calls, please!

Qualifications

1. Must have a minimum of eighteen (18) months claims handling experience and demonstrated ability to recognize and handle suspicious claims activity or, two (2) years experience in law enforcement with knowledge of effective investigative techniques and successful completion of Basic Claims Class within 6 months of hire. (FCLS designation may be substituted for one year of claims experience). 3-5 yrs both claims/ law enforcement investigative experience preferred. 2. Must be able to deal tactfully and diplomatically with the public and outside authorities. This job requires a high degree of tolerance. 3. Must have the ability to evaluate and handle suspicious claims activities and make effective decisions. These decisions may have considerable human and financial consequence. 4. Must apply for and maintain licenses as required in order to handle claims and must conform to State regulations for handling of claims. 5. Requires bilingual English/Spanish skills.

URL

<https://www.cytiva.com/infins/ext/apply2.asp?infins?infins10-338?dbaruch?8>